Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA heart-wrenching historical religious and inspirational romance novel spanning seventy years, two continents, and a an imagined story that holds the power to create a safe future for a young girl during World War Two. This page-turning family saga soars to a breathtaking ending that redefines the meaning of love. When Natalie and Anna, sisters and life-long rivals, hide an abandoned child from the Nazis in Budapest Hungary, their struggle re-opens a star-crossed love triangle and inspirational romance, threatening their safety and testing the bonds of their loyalty. Hungary's fragile alliance with Germany during World War Two insured that Natalie, a best selling childrens book author, and her family would be safe as World War Two raged through Europe. The Holocaust that has only been whispered about until now becomes a terrible reality for every Jewish family or those who hide Jews. Beautiful but troubled Anna, a poet and university professor is losing her tenuous hold on reality, re-igniting a dangerous sibling rivalry that began in childhood. She threatens not only Natalie's inspirational romance, but both of their lives. The streets of Budapest, Hungary echo with the pounding boots of Nazi soldiers at the height World War Two. Danger creeps to the doorstep where the sisters disintegrating relationship threatens to expose the child they are trying to protect. In one night, Annas rash behavior destroys their carefully made plans of escape, and Natalie is presented with a desperate choice. Interwoven with Natalie and Annas story, is Milas. The abandoned child whose future Natalie lovingly imagines in a story about an old woman named Mrs. Tuesday. Mrs. Tuesday's Departure is an example of Christian Historical Fiction and how God's love is always available in our darkest hour. Mrs. Tuesdays Departure is an inspirational Christian historical novel spanning two generations and exploring the un-breakable bonds of sisters.
